Bringing Your Story to Life

Documented Legacy, LLC assists people and organizations in recording aspects of their lifelong history by documenting their experiences, values, beliefs, and charitable decisions through the use of story telling and ethical wills.

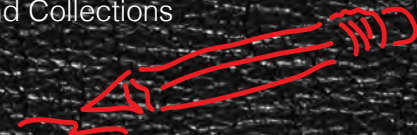

Every day you live your legacy. Tomorrow is not guaranteed. Documented Legacy LLC helps people record the stages and transitions in their life, not just the end of life. We focus on documenting the stories from the past that are important to pass along to future generations.

These recorded legacies tell stories and clarify your personal decisions in life. They are often the story of a life, or from a life. They can be a:

- Memoir
- Tribute
- Life Story
- Personal Journey
- Autobiography
- Biography
- Oral History
- Military History
- Spiritual Journey
- Legacy Letters
- Ethical Wills
- Wedding Blessings
- Life Advice For Teenagers & Young Adults
- Travel Stories
- Recorded Events Such As Reunions, Anniversaries & Roasts
- Personal Letters To Supplement Legal Wills Or Financial Decisions
- Intentions Of Charitable Giving
- Corporate And Professional Milestones
- House Legacies
- Documented Archives Of Hobbies And Collections

Prevent Regrets

At Documented Legacy we help prevent regrets. Most people have a list of projects they would like to create in their lifetime. Among the most talked about projects is recording pieces of the past with relatives and friends, who are either elderly or no longer with us. Those personal stories bring life to your history. It's worth documenting.

Preserving Your Personal History It's Your Story

Our company provides interview services, writing and editing, photography and photo restoration, archival research and restoration, Dignity Therapy and hospice assistance, historical research and other consulting services. Our team includes writers, photographers, videographers, designers, printers and book publishers. We also consult with professionals, such as lawyers, financial advisors, medical professionals, charitable foundations, antique dealers, senior communities, collectors and hobby groups.

The company is led by Mary V. Danielsen, a professional writer with more than 25 years in the communications industry. She has a background in public relations and communications, speech writing, legacy writing, and journalism. She has special niches in Dignity Therapy and photographing personal collections.

The Process

- Think about your legacy project & how you would like it to look.
- Call us for a free consultation. We'll discuss your needs and talk about your time frame
- We'll create several options for recording and producing your project.
- You'll get checklists for organizing your background materials, photos, documents and ideas
- We'll manage the schedule.
- We'll make it fun.
- Your project has to be a cherished asset.
- When we're finished we hope you say, "I should have done this years ago."
- Whether you call us for a 2-hour audio interview, have us consult on your projects or bring us in for a year-long book project, our goal is to help you tell your story.
